Sales & Disposal of Books, Equipment & Supplies

When equipment, books and materials become worn out, obsolete, surplus, or otherwise unusable in the schools, the Superintendent may authorize their disposal in a manner to the district's best advantage.

Any proceeds from disposition of books, equipment or supplies shall be deposited in the town general fund.

Equipment and supplies declared unusable by the Superintendent of Schools will be disposed of according to Town Surplus equipment procedures. Books declared unusable by the Superintendent shall first be offered for sale to used book companies. Remaining unsold books shall be offered to the public free of charge. Any remaining books may be recycled or destroyed.
